Financial Aid & Scholarships

- Financial Aid Overview

- We recommend applying for FAFSA at the same time you apply for the program. Our school code is 015527.
 - Early applicants should be mindful of the enrollment period that FAFSA is being applied for.
 - We are considered undergraduate programming.

- Net Price Calculator

- A federally-mandated tool that gives an overview and estimate on cost, including potential financial aid based on the information that you provide.
 - International students can now apply for institutional aid through the International Net Price Calculator
- If accepted, we offer a two week period to make the commitment. Having Financial Aid award results may help you with this decision.

Overview

- Our first job is to share information so that you can understand the commitment to training, and make an informed decision about moving forward on this career path.
- Our second responsibility is to understand if candidates are qualified. We do this through the admissions process, by collecting and assessing your completed requirements with the NBSS Admissions Committee, which is made up of staff and faculty.
 - Requirements are set up to give you the opportunity to reveal your potential as a candidate. We take a holistic approach so that we can weigh all of the requirements together.
 - NBSS graduates at work are our bond. NBSS Admissions operates with the end in mind, similar to a hiring manager. NBSS has a reputation in each of the industries that we train for. It is our responsibility to choose the highest qualified candidates to carry our reputation forward.

Overview

- We work to meet people where they are, and to understand each person's unique candidacy and circumstances.
- We counsel people up front for dignity and efficiency. It takes courage to consider and take action. We aim to honor the singularity of your intent.
- We require candidates to be self qualified, that is, through your experiences you know in your heart and your head that this is the career path that you want to train for. Are you ready, able, and willing?
- We look at the relationship as a two-way street. We believe that things should happen on your terms, in your timeframe. At the same time, we have specific start times and a limited number of benches. Good communication fosters good results.
- We are committed to diversity, equity, and inclusion in the admissions process, and in concert with the mission of NBSS.
